190 To Leave Eighth Grade

County School Board Meets Saturday To Pass On Applications

The county Board of Education meets on Saturday at the school administration offices at the courthouse to pass upon the applications of approximately 190 eighth grade pupils of the county schools for graduation.

Of the total probable graduates, forty-eight are enrolled at Placerville Grammar School where graduation exercises are being planned for Thursday evening, June 6th.

District Superintendent John H. Palmer said Friday morning that the program for the exercises is being arranged but that the plans at this time do not permit of the public announcement of anything further than the date of the exercises.

Mrs. Kathleen Dwyer, in a preliminary report Friday morning to County Superintendent K. W. McCoy, said the graduating class will number approximately 150. Mrs. Dwyer is the county rural school supervisor, and her estimate included only those candidates for graduation in the rural schools.

Mr. McCoy reported that two pupils, June Bradley and Donald Lindquist, are being graduated this (Friday) afternoon by Cave Valley school and that this evening Pilot Hill School will graduate five, who are Lynn Haslam, James Gillespie, June Glover, Doris Nance and Beulah Peterson.

40,000 TO SEE FROGS JUMP

Mark Twain Revival And County Fair Start Tonight In Calaveras

ANGELS CAMP—Turning back the clock 40 years, residents of Angels and a predicted record-breaking crowd of 40,000 visitors will celebrate the thirteenth annual International Jumping Frog Jubilee this weekend, in commemoration of Mark Twain and his humorous story, "The Jumping Frog of Calaveras."

From Friday night, when festivities commence at Frogtown, until late Sunday afternoon, a true "forty-niner" holiday spirit will reign. Climaxing the three-day program will be the finals in the International Jumping Frog contest Sunday afternoon. "Zip," the defending champion, rules a favorite to repeat his 1938 victory. Last year he was nosed out in the finals.

Interest also centers on a special governor's division of the frog jumping contest to be held Saturday, with Governor Culbert L. Olson's "Democracy" and Governor P. P. Cone's Florida entry, "Sun Tan," favored over other gubernatorial entries.

The fourth annual Calaveras District Fair, offering premiums totaling $8,000 for mineral and agricultural exhibits and stock entries, will be held in conjunction with the Jubilee.

Site of the two-fold celebration is Frogtown, one mile south of Angels. A new improved parking area will accommodate 6000 cars.

MOTOR CITY TO START SUMMER SEASON ON JUNE 1ST

Modeling Johnnie, popular radio entertainer will be at Motor City, Saturday night, June 1st to formally open the dancing season at that resort. He will bring with him a bevy of artists from radio station KPBK in Sacramento.

During the past two weeks the big dance pavilion at Motor City has been renovated for the opening affair. The roller skating season finished May 1st, according to Mrs. Barker, who is in charge of the business.

Three well-known and popular dance orchestras have been contracted for the summer dancing season, Captain Carter's, playing now at Sweet's in Sacramento; Red's Rhythm Rascals of this county, and Rolfe Barton's Californians, now playing in Sacramento. Beginning Saturday night, June 8, these orchestras will rotate their appearance, one being at Motor City each Saturday night, thereafter.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Dunn and son, Jack, are now at their summer residence in Lake Valley to remain until Mr. Dunn's schedule as a mail carrier is revised for the winter next fall.

Mrs. Ralph Kyburz moved Saturday to Kyburz resort to spend the summer.

NEW RABIES CASE FOUND

Quarantine Set March 4 Being Enforced; Owners Of Pets Are Advised

"Dog's head positive for rabies. Treatment of anyone bitten urgent. Dr. W. H. Kellogg."

Just when city officials had about concluded that the rabies infection among pets in the community early in the Spring had been successfully stamped out, the above message came Thursday afternoon from state laboratories at Berkeley.

It reported on an examination of the head of an unattached mongrel killed Monday by city police after he had been picked up, evidently ill, on Bedford Avenue.

Although the dog had shown no disposition to violence, the appearance of infection in its mouth led Chief of Police Ralph Jones to order the head sent to the state laboratories for analysis.

"While I am not prepared to undertake a professional discussion of rabies and its symptoms, this case evidently is a new type in the community for the dog was not violent at all," the Chief of Police said.

"The significant feature to me about the case is that despite a lapse of several weeks during which no new infections were reported, we do still have a rabies infection in the community and there is need for the enforcement of every safeguard to effect its control."

"The quarantine on dogs and cats established by the city council at its meeting on March 4 is being enforced. That explains how we came upon this present case."

"We wish to remind the owners of pet dogs and cats that the quarantine is being enforced, although there recently has not been much publicity on the matter. The co-operation of the public is always appreciated."

Derby Picture Will Be Shown

Last Year's Championship At Akron To Be Screened At Meeting Tuesday Night

Soap Box Derby entries and their parents and other friends will be interested in attending a meeting at the War Veterans' Memorial Building on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at which motion pictures of the 1939 All-American Soap Box Derby, at Akron, Ohio, will be shown.

The Soap Box Derby committee extends an invitation to all entries in the El Dorado County Soap Box Derby, to be held on July 7th, and all others interested, to attend the meeting.

At a recent meeting of the committee, officials for the El Dorado County Soap Box Derby were tentatively appointed and a public announcement of the officials of the race is being delayed pending the acceptance by the various individuals of the responsibilities of their appointment.

Following the derby in Placerville on July 7, the winner will compete in the Mother Lode Soap Box Derby to be held July 21 at a place yet to be named (either Jackson, Placerville, Auburn or Roseville or Sonoma) in which the winner will be qualified as an entry in the All-American Soap Box Derby, at Akron, Ohio, on August 11th.

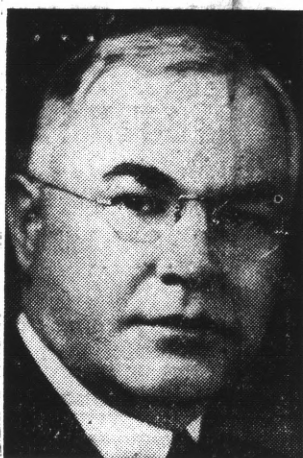

The El Dorado County Soap Box Derby is sponsored jointly by the Cannon Chevrolet agency and this newspaper. Boys who are interested in participating in the race may obtain entry blanks and rule books at the Cannon Chevrolet Agency.

BRENNAN RITES ON SATURDAY

Fruit Exchange Leader Died Wednesday Evening At Sacramento Hospital

The funeral services for James J. Brennan, late president of the California Fruit Exchange, will be conducted Saturday morning at ten o'clock at St. Joseph's Catholic church, in Auburn.

Mr. Brennan passed away Wednesday evening at a hospital in Sacramento where he had been a patient for about three weeks, following an operation for the relief of a bladder ailment.

Palbearers for the service will include I. J. Woodin, H. E. Cole, H. E. Rowe, C. G. Werner, W. L. Hack and E. D. Moody.

Honorary pall bearers include P. W. Read, T. J. Flammer, James A. Irving, W. V. Jahant, A. I. Diepenbrock and K. V. Plummer.

Mr. Brennan was born in Sacramento, May 29, 1870, but became a resident of Placer county early in life. Educated in the schools of that district, he first took up railroading and was employed by the Southern Pacific Company. He soon turned, however, to the industry that was to become the major pursuit for the greatest part of his life—that of fruit culture, production, and shipping.

While developing his ranch properties located near Loomis, Placer county, Mr. Brennan, with others was instrumental in the organization of the Newcastle Fruit Growers Association in 1901, which association became affiliated with the California Fruit Exchange, the parent sales organizations, during that same year.

In 1913 Mr. Brennan was elected president of the Newcastle Fruit Growers Association and following this, in 1914 he was made a member of the Board of Directors of the California Fruit Exchange. In 1922 Mr. Brennan was elected to the position of vice-president of the Exchange, and in 1926 he succeeded the late George H. Cutter, on the latter's death, as president of the California Fruit Exchange.

Following the death of J. L. Nagle, late general manager of the California Fruit Exchange in January of this year, Mr. Brennan was named acting general manager, and served in this position until the appointment of Irving J. Woodin, who was made general manager only a month ago.

In 1900 Mr. Brennan married Mary Elizabeth King of Placer county. He is survived by his widow, two sons, James J. Brennan, Jr., of Placer county, and Arthur K. Brennan, of Los Angeles, and five grandchildren. His brother, J. D. Brennan, is superintendent of the Bakersfield division of the Southern Pacific Company, and A. T. Brennan, also a brother, resides in San Jose.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Goodrich, Jr., recently wed, returned Thursday evening from a visit of several days at Yosemite.

NATIVE SONS MEET MONDAY

Resorts At Lake Tahoe Co-Operate In Move To Invite Grand Parlor

Delegates from Placerville Parlor No. 9, N. S. G. W., leave during the weekend for Bakersfield where, on Monday, May 20th, the annual Grand Parlor, Native Sons of the Golden West, convenes.

The meeting of the Grand Parlor is in several respects one of the most important since the establishment of Placerville Parlor.

Henry S. Lyon, a past president of Placerville Parlor and the present Grand First Vice-President of the order, will become the Grand President for the year 1941.

In addition, the delegates from Placerville Parlor propose to extend to the Grand Parlor an invitation to hold its 1941 meeting in El Dorado County at the south end of Lake Tahoe.

A committee of the parlor visited Lake Valley on Wednesday of this week to make a preliminary survey of the facilities and to invite the co-operation of the resort owners in making the invitation to the Grand Parlor especially attractive.

They report that the facilities for entertaining the meeting are more than adequate and that the operators of the several resorts contacted gave the promise of the fullest co-operation in support of the movement to invite the Grand Parlor to the county.

Placerville Parlor's delegates to the Grand Parlor, which will open on Monday and conclude on Thursday are George M. Smith, Leo Ench and Clyde R. Berriman.

Sutter's Mill Trial Is Set

Condemnation Action To Acquire Coloma Property For State Opens June 18

The condemnation suit to acquire the historic site of Sutter's Mill at Coloma for the State of California, will open in the El Dorado county Superior Court on Tuesday, June 18th, according to the present court calendar.

The suit is a development in several years of efforts undertaken through different individuals to acquire the property on the shore of the south fork of the American River at Coloma, owned by Percy Monroe.

The various efforts to acquire the property by negotiation have all met with failure and the setting of the matter for hearing would appear to indicate that any efforts which may or may not have been put forward to acquire the property since the filing of the condemnation suit, have met a like result;—no agreement.

Neil Cunningham, of the attorney general's office, was in the county Thursday and visited Coloma, presumably in connection with preparations for going to trial with the suit.

Merryman's Prepared For Tourist Season

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Merryman announce that their resort, known the country over as "Merry-man's" has been completely fixed up for the tourist season. All apartments and housekeeping cabins have been renovated and are most modern in every detail, the owners stated.

Dances are held every Saturday night in the large hall and old-time and modern music is featured.

Other attractions at the resort are a store, service station and a varied and valuable collection of relics of 1849 period.

Justice of the Peace T. F. Lewis goes to Sacramento Saturday night to attend a meeting at the Travelers Hotel on plans for the annual convention of Justices of the Peace at Santa Monica.

Henry Bacchi was a caller Friday from Garden Valley.

In his laboratory at Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, Pa., is Dr. J. C. Hoogerheide, examining a culture of what he considers one of the most powerful of germ destroyers, called bacillus. Administered to mice, it has enabled them to withstand 1,000,000 lethal doses of pneumonia.

$2,500 BONUS PLAN OPENS

Campaign Offers Extra Cash For Easy Work Among Friends, Neighbors

The Mountain Democrat's big $2500 Bonus Check campaign is under way today and the work of selecting the men and women who will take an active part in this drive has started. Any man or woman interested in earning spare time money is invited to call at the campaign office and discuss this most unusual money earning plan with the campaign manager, or if you wish, telephone 91 and a representative will call at your home with full details.

The following is a brief outline of what the campaign plan consists of:

First—the plan is not a contest plan. There are no prizes to be won and nothing to be given away.

Second—the campaign is simply a money-earning proposition for men and women who have some spare time and who are willing to work and turn that spare time into cash.

Third—the work is not house to house canvassing or calling upon people you do not know. Every worker is supplied with especially prepared list of names with which to work. You simply contact those with whom you are personally acquainted.

Fourth—the money that will be paid earned by those engaged in this work is as follows:

One year, new or renewal subscription, 40 cents; two years subscription, 80 cents; three years, $1.20; four years, $1.60; five years, $2.00.

These earnings will be paid to the workers every Wednesday and Saturday. The following Bonus Checks will be paid to the first workers, according to the arrangement announced in last week's issue: $500, $200, $100, $50 and $25. The average weekly earnings of workers, aside from those earning Bonus Checks will be from $15 to $25.

This campaign must not be misunderstood. It is not a "contest," but merely a straight wage earning business proposition. In this plan of campaign there are no phases of anyone taking part is honest, sincere effort.

You are just as big and just as capable as anyone. Just have enough confidence in yourself and enough backbone to get out and make a sincere try and if you do, you will immediately start earning good money. Remember, this campaign is big enough for any man or woman living in this section. The work is pleasant and highly profitable. Start today!

The following are employed by the Mountain Democrat and Placerville Republican and are authorized to issue receipts and collect money for these newspapers.

Mrs. Oviedo LeBourveau

U.S. DEFENSE PLAN SPEEDED

Committees Of Both Houses Begin Consideration Of Emergency Program

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Roosevelt revealed today that he is planning to recommission 35 more old World War destroyers and is exerting pressure on airplane manufacturers to move their new plants away from exposed seaboard areas.

Reviewing details of the $1,182,000,000 defense program which he submitted to congress yesterday, Mr. Roosevelt said that any immediate threat to this country would make necessary an infinitely larger program.

He spoke at a press conference while congress had enthusiastically pitched into work on the huge preparedness program.

Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief-of-staff, appeared before a secret meeting of the senate military appropriations subcommittee, one of the several groups which is seeking to speed the new defense preparations.

The house military affairs committee also acted to expedite the program. Chairman Andrew May introduced an army bill clearing legal obstacles for general expansion, acquisition of planes, and training of more pilots.

Congressional leaders believe some—perhaps all—of it may be disposed of by next week.

This new emergency billion takes national defense spending plans for the year beginning July 1 over $3,000,000,000, which is nearly $25 for every man, woman and child in the nation.

But it is only a beginning if Mr. Roosevelt's plan for invulnerable defense and a program for an ultimate military and naval airfleet of 50,000 fighting ships is realized.

Merchants Offer Free Parking

Five Stores Combine To Help Relieve Traffic Snarl On Main Street

Five Placerville business houses joined Friday in an announcement they are affording their patrons the opportunity for one hour of free parking while shopping and have leased the Sigwart lot, on Main Street opposite the Bell Tower, for that purpose.

The venture is a forward-looking move to aid in the solution of the Main Street parking problem and should be a very material contribution along that line, since the lot will accommodate approximately sixty cars.

The plans contemplate operation of the area as an auto parking lot for the general public.

In addition, patrons of Robinson's Pharmacy, the Sprouse-Reitz Store, Kelly's Grocery, Mac's Jumbo Fountain and the Cash Mercantile Store patrons will be eligible to share in one-hour of free parking while shopping.

Those who hope to benefit by this service feature provided by the merchants named above, should obtain their regular parking ticket at the parking lot and be sure to have the ticket validated by the participating merchant with whom they shop.

Albert Lewis returned Thursday evening from studies at the University.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Dodds were in town Friday morning from near Cammino, taking in the sights.

HI CHATTER

BY
Bill Dillinger
OUR CORRESPONDENT

The Cougars, having won the Mother Lode League title, were eliminated in the semi-finals of the Central California Championships, at Lincoln on Friday afternoon by a score of 8 to 2. So now the Cougar bats are hung up for another season, which we can only hope will be as successful as this one.

Jim Takes "Holt"

Vice president and president-elect, Jim Holt called the ASB meeting to order on Thursday, using his constitutional power as vice prexy to preside over one meeting each year.
This is an "old Spanish custom" of ours, inspired, no doubt, by some vice president who wanted to show the student body that the office of vice president should not be classified as "still life."

Boys Senate

The Boys' Senate annual meeting, the only meeting all the boys of the school are privileged to attend, after many ups and downs, has finally been set — they hope — for either May 22 or 23. Although original plans called for an evening party, this year's will be held during the latter part of the afternoon.
Tentative plans call for an installation of the new officers to be elected on Thursday, May 16, and a report of the doings of the Senate.

The nominees for the various Senate officers are: president, Gordon Pisk, Angus Sloan, Bob Weidman; vice president, Lenard Del Carlo, Bill Liddicoat; treasurer,
Stanley Bosch, George Faugstad;
secretary, Bill Rupley, Stanley Woodridge; commissioner of publicity, Norman Austin, Louie Bru-nello, Dick Cribbs; senior class representative, Jack Ferrari, Clarence Becker; junior representative, Bill Holt, Bill Rohrer; sophomore representative Bob O'Neil, Edward Stafford, John Weidman.

The freshman representative will be selected during next year's class elections.

Girls League

Girls League installations will be held next week. Maxine Miller will be the new president.

Prom Promises

Committees for the junior prom have been working feverishly for the last few weeks in order to make this prom the greatest ever. The will and the prophecy are receiving the last finishing touches, and while these masterpieces of satire are being perfected, the decoration committee has been busy cooking up schemes to make the old gym "look like what it ain't" and the program committee hasn't been sleeping, either. We sincerely believe that at eight o'clock, Friday night, May 17, Anno Domini 1940 will be held the most successful prom E. C. H. S. has ever seen.

Jane Hall, girl detective, is summoned to the home of Emery Harding on Skeleton Island, off Maine, to guard his daughter, Audrey, whose life has been threatened in a letter typewritten in red, demanding that Harding relinquish a valuable ruby he bought from an old sea captain, Albert Santrey. He also sends for his friend Bruce Kirby, young museum curator.
Shortly afterward, Santrey is murdered on the beach—killed by a deadly snake's venom injected with a hypodermic needle. Then a servant, Drumm, is killed. Among the house guests are Frank Bitherbee, Audrey's flame; Dr. Straater, family physician; Dr. Toler, snake expert; and Robert Castian, Harding's lawyer. Later the same night, a face is seen peering into the living-room window. A group of the men dash out to catch the snooper.

CHAPTER XIX

THE FIVE men went out the door. Kirby and Bitherbee in the lead. Straater, Toler and Harding, being less active, puffed along in the rear.
Out on the lawn, they paused while Kirby scanned the capacious stretch of island in front of the house. The night had darkened. The moon had set. Only clusters of stars twinkled in the murky expanse of sky.

"We'll have to separate," Kirby said. "Spread out across the lawn
and go down toward the water.
Bitherbee, you keep to the left and take in the servants' quarters. See who's out missing. Let's go!"

They spread out across the damp grass, losing sight of each other in the darkness. A slight mist was coming in from the sea
It had a clammy feel.

Kirby trekked down to the beach without seeing anything.
After making a brief, fruitless search, he turned back, his shoes
full of sand.

He was the first one to return to the lawn in front of the house.
In a few minutes, Bitherbee came running up.

"Find anything?" asked Kirby.
"No," went to the servants'
quarters. The only one out is Ab Lee. No one seems to know where he is. But everything is in confusion there. Mrs. Drumm is having a fit of hysteria, poor soul."

"Oh," murmured Kirby. "So Bennet has told her?"
"Yes," Bitherbee sighed. "What a mess!"

"Here's Straater," said Kirby.
"Halloo, he's got some one with him."

Dr. Straater materialized out of the night, dragging a squealing prisoner with him.

"I found this little rat," he grated, "down by one of the dunes, grovelling in the sand, trying to hide himself."

"I do nothing, tuan! I do nothing!"
It was Ab Lee, the Malayan boy.
He squirmed in Straater's grip, but could not break away.

Bitherbee grabbed him away from Straater and held him by the collar.

"What were you doing at that window?" he demanded.

"I do nothing, tuan," expostulated Ab Lee in terror. "Me watch game. That all?"

"Take it easy," said Kirby.
"What did you say, Ab Lee?"

"Me watch game," the boy explained in his high-pitched voice.
"See people in parlor play cards."

"Oh," said Kirby. "Ever done that before?"

"Yes, tuan, many time. Like to watch from outside."

"Let him go, Bitherbee," said Kirby. "Why did you run, then Ab Lee?"

"Master jump up and point at me and yell. I get scared. Run away. Think maybe I lose my job."

"WHERE'S Toler?" Dr. Straater
asked.

"Right here," replied a voice from the darkness. "Himmel, but my leg pains!" Dr. Toler came limping up.

"You took plenty of time," remarked Straater suspiciously.

"Jawohl," nodded Toler. "But then, Herr Doktor I am a lame man."

Bitherbee looked around uneasily. "Where's Mr. Harding?"

"He'll be along," said Kirby un-convincingly. "Perhaps he's located something of interest. And don't glare at that Malay boy so hard, Dr. Straater. He won't run off."

"I'll wager," said the doctor omnously, "that he knows more than he's saying."

Ah Lee muttered something in his native tongue.

"What did he say?" Straater
asked.

"He said that you are crazy," smiled Kirby.

"Why, you—" Straater rasped
raising his hand toward Ab Lee.

"You have a faculty for losing your temper, haven't you? Doctor?" said Kirby cuttingly.

HE PEERED off across the lawn
in an effort to locate Harding. Several minutes passed.

"I don't like this at all!"
Bitherbee. "I don't like this at all!"

"Which route did Emery take?"
Kirby asked.

"Down that way, toward the pier."

"I think we had better go down," said Kirby. "Ab Lee, go into the house. Wait there."

"Yes, tuan."

"Not on your life!" Straater snapped. "I'm not losing sight of this boy. He comes along!"

Kirby sighed. "Very well. Drag him with you."

The entire troupe watched off in the general direction Harding had taken. They did not have to go far.
Halfway between the house and the shore line, still on the grass of the lawn, they discerned the writhing figure of a man on the ground.

Kirby dashed ahead of the others.
"Good Lord!" he whispered in horror.

It was Emery Harding.

"THE GRAPES OF WRATH" OPENS 3-DAY SHOWING IN PLACERVILLE SUNDAY AT EMPIRE THEATRE; JANE WITHERS FILM ENDS SATURDAY

The 20th Century-Fox version of the widely known and discussed story by John Steinbeck, "The Grapes of Wrath," comes to Placerville Sunday for a three-day engagement at the Empire Theater.

The book has been so widely "cussed and discussed" that virtually everyone who pretends to keep abreast of current topics is more or less familiar with the subject, although he may not have read the book.

The film features Henry Fonda with Eddie Quilian, Dorris Bowden and Shirley Mills.

"The Grapes of Wrath" will be shown on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

The current Empire presentation features Jane Withers in "High School," which advance publicity states is really quite authentic as a picture of American high school life in which Jane finds a good deal more of excitement than education in the reel version of "High School."

Belgians Quit Brussels

rection of Paris.

By UNITED PRESS
German armies pounded a broad path today through the heart of Belgium and into northern France. Official statements in Berlin—partly confirmed by Allied dispatches—said that the Nazi blitzkrieg toward the English channel had broken the main British defense lines along the Dyle river in front of Brussels captured the Belgium fortress of Namur and smashed westward down the Sambre river into the French Maginot line defenses at Maubeuge.

In Paris, it was admitted that the Germans had reached Rethel, 100 miles from the French capital, and that tremendous German power was being thrown into the main offensive in an attempt to win the war by a quick and devastating blow.

The Allies fought back with everything they could throw into the battle along the Maginot defenses. Paris dispatches said that Allied planes and guns were hurling tons of high explosives into the German positions around Rethel in an effort to collapse the Nazi salient. Both London and Paris admitted that the military situation was very grave as a result of the big budge created by the Germans in their main defense lines, but both expressed confidence that it would be overcome.

The regular meeting of the Kelsey Farm Center will be held tonight at Kelsey Hall.
